Save On Workforce Travel With Corporate Lodging Consultants

Business Lodging Solutions on Display at NARMS 2010 in Tampa April 17-20

Wichita, Kansas (March 31, 2010) Corporate Lodging Consultants (CLC) delivers deep discounts on business lodging to the retailer services industry, benefiting the merchandising service firms, food brokers, consumer goods manufacturers and others who travel for their work.

CLC will bring its workforce travel solutions to the National Association for Retail Marketing Services (NARMS) annual conference in Tampa, Fla., April 17-20.

"The savings that companies generate on lodging with CLC allows them to bid more competitively on their projects," said Bill Gray, CLC National Account Manager. "CLC also provides the detail reporting that makes company lodging spending easier to track and manage.

"In addition, CLC's direct billing and 24-hour support for travelers on the road saves clients time, another precious commodity in today's fast-paced business world," Gray said.

With a nationwide network of thousands of hotels across the U.S. and Canada, CLC can help businesses save on company lodging no matter where the job takes them. For larger companies, CLC offers custom lodging solutions, while small and independent companies can take advantage of CLC's CheckINN Direct savings cards program.

CLC's hotel discounts can benefit every type of company that must travel for its business, whether for installations, construction, field events or other sales and services. CLC will showcase its lodging management services at the 2010 Electric Power trade show in Baltimore, Md., May 18-20, and at Windpower 2010 in Dallas, Texas, May 23-26.

Businesses that want to start saving on business travel should call (866) 362-0739, e-mail sales@corplodging.com or visit the CLC booth at NARMS. Businesses ready to sign up now for CheckINN Direct can use key code NARMSPR for special pricing.
